

Self-Service oder Non-Self-Service OEM?

Kubota unterscheidet hier zwischen Self-Service und Non-Self-Service OEM's

Was ist ein Self-Service-OEM? Was ist ein Non-Self Service OEM?

Jeder OEM der Kubota Motoren in seiner Maschine einbaut kann entscheiden, ob er ein Non-Self Service-OEM oder Self-Service OEM sein möchte. Dementsprechend ist sein Service Netzwerk aufgebaut.

Ein Non-Self-Service OEM, gibt seine Produkte für das Kubota Engine Service Netzwerk (KESN) frei wodurch Ersatzteillisten sichtbar sind und Kubota Partner Service an den OEM Produkten durchführen können.

Darunter fallen z.B. Hamm, Bomag, Ammann, Merlo, Atlas Copco
(komplette Liste weiter unten)

Ihre Maschinen stammen von einem Non-Self-Service OEM? In diesem Fall helfen wir Ihnen bei Ihrem Ersatzteilbedarf gerne weiter.

Ein Self Service OEM, beansprucht den Service für sich und gibt seine Produkte nicht für das Kubota Netzwerk frei, hier wird der Service über sein eigenes Servicenetz gewährleistet.

Darunter fallen z.B. Kubota Baumaschinen, Kubota Traktoren, Bobcat, Manitou
(komplette Liste weiter unten)

Stammen Ihre Maschinen von einem Self-Service OEM, wenden Sie sich mit Ihrem Ersatzteilbedarf an den entsprechenden Hersteller.

Weitere Informationen zu Self Service OEMs und Non-Self Service OEMs finden Sie in der Kubota Engine Service Policy.
